Naples, March 23. On the 15th Instant sailed from this Port the King's Xebecks to cruize in the Adriatick against the Barbary Pirates. On the 16th a large House fell down in the Street of the Silversmiths, by which Accident eight Persons were buried under the Ruins, and many others were greatly bruised and disabled. The same Day Count Policastro was, by the King's Orders, sent Prisoner to the Castle of Gaeta, for having abused a Judge of the Criminal Court, at the Time that he had confined him to his House for having challenged and fought M. Sepino. On the 18th some Soldiers of the Foot Regiment of Calabria pursuing, in a Quarrel, some Sea-faring People of Chiaja, who took Shelter in the Palace of the Prince of Strongoli, the young Prince and his Uncle came down Stairs to prevent Mischief; but the Soldiers, without any Regard, fired their Guns, killed a Man upon the Spot at the Elbow of the young Prince, and wounded him dangerously in the Face with a Cutlash. The Soldiers were arrested, and the Nobility are very impatient to see what Punishment will be inflicted upon them.

Rome, March 27. On the 19th Instant Cardinal Rezzonico had a long Audience of the Pope, in Consequence of a Commission he had received from the Senate of Venice; he being charged with their Affairs till the Arrival of the new Ambassador. On the 22d the Portuguese and Sardinian Ministers had each an Audience of the Pope, to communicate to him the Commissions from their respective Courts. Besides the Body of Sta. Crestina, and a Balcon of Agnus Dei, the Pope presented to the Duke of Deux Ponts a fine Picture of Mosaick, and two others in Tapistry of the Fabrick of St. Michael.

Florence, April 2. On the 28th past Count Richécourt returned from Leghorn, where he had been to see his Son, who was performing Quarantain after the Voyage he had made to the Levant, &c. with the Emperor's three Ships of War commanded by Commodore Acton; and, agreeable to the Emperor's Commands, to give the necessary Orders for disarming those Ships, and laying them up at Porto Ferraio, where Preparations are making accordingly for that Purpose. These Ships were to be admitted at Pratick this Day the 2d Instant. On the 29th Colonel Mill set out from hence on his Journey to England. By the last Letters from Vienna, the Regency received Notice of the happy Delivery of the Empress of a Princess.

Barcelona, April 4. His Danish Majesty's Envoy to the Court of Spain passed through this City this Week in his Way to Madrid.

Whitehall, April 13.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint his Grace the Duke of Bedford, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Devon, and of the City of Exeter and County of the same, in the room of the Earl of Orford, deceased.

The Commissioners appointed to put in Execution an Act of Parliament passed in the Kingdom of Ireland, for making Rivers navigable, having taken under their Consideration the Navigation of the River Shannon, and different Methods being proposed for effecting the same, they do hereby give Notice, that any Person of Skill in Projecting, and also well versed in the Execution of Works of that Nature, may apply to Isham Baggs, Esq; (Secretary to the said Commissioners) in Dublin, setting forth his Qualifications, and the Proofs thereof; and in Case the said Commissioners shall, upon due Enquiry, be satisfied of the Capacity of such Person for their Service, they will contract to give him a very ample Recompence for going over to Ireland, and for directing and conducting the said intended Navigation to the final Completion thereof.

*Dublin Castle,
9 March 1750.*

Signed by Order, Isham Baggs.

Custom-House, London, April 11, 1751.

There having been paid the 6th Instant into the Hands of Mr. Edward Barrow, Deputy Comptroller of the Customs at Hull, a Sum of Money by  the Commissioners of the Customs give Notice to the Persons concerned, that the same is placed to Account on the King's Books on the Branch of Old Customs.

This is to give Notice to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Sloop Merlin, who were on board at the Time of her taking the Duc D'Aquillon and La Neriade, French Prizes, on the 12th Day of August 1747. between Hispaniola and Cuba in the West Indies, that they may receive their Shares of the said Prizes, at the Sugar-Loaf in Dagger's Court, Moorfields, on Monday the 22d Instant, or on the first Monday of every Month for three Years, at Mr. James Dickenson's, opposite the Rose and Crown, in Rose and Crown Court, Moorfields.
